

Lily's Jungle Rescue

Little adventurers • 3-4 years old

Part 1: The Jungle Expedition

Once upon a time in a faraway land, there lived a brave and curious little girl named Lily who was only 3 years old. Lily loved exploring and discovering new things. She lived near a mysterious jungle that was full of exotic plants and animals.

One sunny morning, Lily decided to embark on an exciting adventure with her three best friends, Tommy, Emily, and Sam. They all packed their backpacks with snacks and water, ready to explore the jungle and save an animal in danger.

As they entered the dense jungle, the air was thick with humidity, and the sounds of chirping birds and rustling leaves surrounded them. Lily led the way, her eyes wide with wonder as she spotted colorful butterflies fluttering by.

Suddenly, they heard a faint cry for help coming from deep within the jungle. Lily's heart raced with determination as she knew they had to find and rescue the animal in distress.

Part 2: The Challenge of the River

Their journey wasn't easy; they had to cross a wide river with strong currents. Lily suggested building a sturdy bridge using fallen branches and vines. With teamwork and clever thinking, they managed to construct a safe passage across the river.

As they continued their expedition, they faced a steep hill covered in slippery mud. Emily slipped and fell, but Lily quickly came to her rescue, pulling her up with a reassuring smile. Together, they climbed the hill and reached a breathtaking waterfall.

But their biggest challenge awaited them ahead. A group of wild monkeys blocked their path, screeching and baring their teeth. Lily knew they had to stay calm and come up with a plan to safely pass through the monkey's territory.

Part 3: The Triumph of Friendship

Thinking quickly, Lily remembered that monkeys loved bananas. She offered them some of their snacks, and the monkeys happily accepted the peace offering, allowing the children to pass without harm.

Finally, they reached a secluded clearing where they found a baby jaguar trapped in a hunter's net. The poor animal looked scared and exhausted. Lily's heart ached at the sight, but she knew they had to set it free.

With Sam's strong hands, they carefully cut the net, and the baby jaguar leaped out, grateful and relieved. It nuzzled Lily, thanking her in its own special way.

Their mission was a success, and they all shared a triumphant hug, proud of their bravery and teamwork. As they made their way back home, the sun began to set, casting a warm glow over the jungle, a reminder of their incredible adventure.

And so, Lily and her friends returned home as heroes, their hearts full of joy and their bond stronger than ever. It was a day they would never forget, filled with courage, friendship, and the magic of exploration in the heart of the jungle.

The quiz: did you understand the story well?

1) What is the name of the brave little girl in the story?

- Sophie
- Lily
- Olivia
- Emma

2) How many friends accompanied Lily on her jungle expedition?

- Two
- Three
- Four
- Five

3) What did the group use to cross the river?

- Boat
- Bridge
- Swim
- Fly

4) Which animal was trapped in the hunter's net?

- Elephant
- Lion
- Jaguar
- Zebra

5) What did Lily offer to the wild monkeys to pass through their territory?

- Cookies
- Bananas
- Carrots
- Apples

Correct answers:

1) Lily 2) Three 3) Bridge 4) Jaguar 5) Bananas

Glossary: complicated words in the story

Dense: Closely compacted together; thick

Humidity: The amount of moisture in the air

Exotic: Foreign, unfamiliar, or unusual in a way that seems exciting or mysterious

Currents: A body of water or air moving in a definite direction, especially through a surrounding body of water or air in which there is less movement

Steep: Rising or falling sharply; almost straight up and down

Breathtaking: Very exciting or impressive